

Calling 'Farmington IDOL' Wanna Be's...

Got Talent & Looking for a place to showcase Yourself, Band or Act?

Rambling River Day's Open Mic Venue

is YOUR BIG CHANCE!

RRD's Entertainment & Main Stages

June 20-22

Schmitz-Maki Arena

Varying times available on a first come first serve basis

We've got GREAT talent scheduled but we want to give our Local Talent time to SHINE!

OPEN MIC RULES

1. The content of music played must be appropriate for a community audience; performances are open to the public.
2. Lyrics must be in line with community performances and broadcast appropriate. Profanities, sexual, racist, or violent overtones, themes or gestures are not allowed.
3. The artist(s) shall be responsible for the promotion of the performance. Artist(s) are encouraged to provide C.E.E.F and Rambling River Days promotional photos, logos, and flyers in order to have them advertised via our website.
4. No drugs, alcohol or other illegal substances are allowed in the Rambling River Days area.
5. The artist(s) will maintain a safe environment. Absolutely no stage diving or crowd surfing.
6. ALL performers must have a 2008 Rambling River Days button as admission.
7. This is NOT a paid performance and you must provide own instruments if applicable
8. Entire sound system and Microphones provided by Rambling River Days & C.E.E.F.

Rambling River Days will be teaming with potential "gig" opportunities so bring your latest recording, business cards or pamphlets to advertise your services

YOU GOT TALENT??? WE WANT TO SEE IT!!!

You might be the next 'Farmington Idol!'

Contact RRD Entertainment Chair, Dolly Newberg at 612-221-2600 or via email at chiching2002@aol.com for more information.